Points to Note

Went through layout of midterm presentation slides

- How do we define consistency of user? – better define of our x-factor – quantify them
 - How we benefit from the market research done by the pervious team as a source of background study?
 - How about doing a minute video clip of users that admit to the problem?
 - Could provide the steps (user instructions/guide) for the reviewer to test our app?
 - From the testing,
 - o What did we learn?
 - o What changes did we make?
 - o How were the changes successful?
 - For slide on rating, label y & x-axis
 - Provide reasoning of why MVC is used, and why we opted for MVC (suitable for our app)
 - Describe how the data connectivity is being achieved
 - Describe what is the most challenging (function/part) – (could be a complexity)
 - Highlight the changes from pervious and after scope
